This Memorandum of Understanding (hereafter referred to as 'MoU') signed on the 28th September, 2022 at Awadhesh Pratap Singh University, Rewa (MP) by & between

Awadhesh Pratap Singh University, Rewa, Madhya Pradesh, India
(hereafter referred to as "APSU")
and

The Govind Ballabh Pant Social Science Institute, Allahabad, Uttar Pradesh, India
(hereafter referred to as 'GBPSSI')

Awadhesh Pratap Singh University was established on 20th July 1968 as a state university of Madhya Pradesh. The University has been named after a distinguished son of the soil and a freedom fighter Capt. Awadhesh Pratap Singh, a national leader and the first Prime Minister of Vindhya Pradesh. The university was recognized by the UGC in February 1972. The University is a member of the Association of Indian Universities (AIU) and All Commonwealth Association of Universities (ACAU). The University has 13 teaching departments which offer more than 50 professional programmes on self-supporting basis apart from the regular post graduate programmes. We also impart education through nearly 210 affiliated colleges within the University jurisdiction in Anuppur, Rewa, Satna, Shahdol, Sidhi, Singrauli and Umaria districts of Madhya Pradesh.

The university has Faculty of Social Sciences under which it has Department of Ancient Indian History Culture & Archaeology, Department of Business Economics, Department of Psychology and Department of Philosophy. These departments are offering UG, PG and Doctoral Programmes in the related subjects. The university also has Jawahar Lal Nehru Centre for Policy Research which offers UG & PG Programmes in Public Administration and Doctoral Programmes in Political Science, Sociology and Policy Research.

Whereas, the Govind Ballabh Pant Social Science Institute, Prayagraj (GBPSSI) established in 1980 is a Constituent Institute of the University of Allahabad. The Institute is a premier research institute of social sciences in the country. The research areas pursued by the Institute are as follows:

Economic and Social Policies and strategies: The major concerns include agrarian structure, issues related to land, labour and employment; environment, disaster, poverty and climatic change; food security development related displacement and most importantly institutions and development. Other international concerns that are being addressed include Global governance, climate change and carbon markets.

Social policy concerns include population growth and resource constraints, which are of utmost importance to the most densely populated state of Uttar Pradesh; problem associated with ageing; intergenerational transmission of advantages and disadvantages of education health and stamina; the inter-relationship of under nutrition, health and eco-systems; enlarging human choices: securing freedom, well-being, and dignity for every human being, and gender and development issues.

Culture, Politics and Society: Concept of power, popular cultures, memory and past, orality and printed knowledge of Dalit, subaltern and other marginalised communities, local knowledge, structures and forms of subaltern cultural consciousness and linkage between cultural resources of the communities and process of development. Newly emerging public cultures, new turns in religious practices, mobile communities and moving images in globalised world, diasporic cultures, various forms of identity politics, cinema and media and relationship between politics, culture and state in colonial and contemporary India. Explorations of alternative public sphere, dissenting voices,
