MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

I. The Parties

The University of Allahabad, a central university established on 23 September 1887, situated in Prayagraj represented through its registrar or the authorised officer, as one party and the Delhi Teachers University, established through the Delhi Teachers University Act, 2022 (Delhi Act 02 of 2022), on 26 January 2022 and hereinafter jointly referred as parties, have agreed to enter and to sign this MoU in support of the development of academic co-operation and collaboration between the parties.

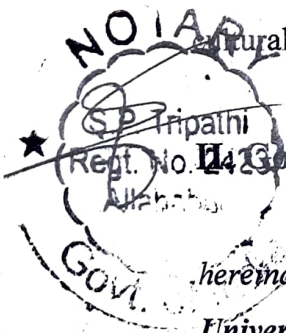

Background of the parties:

The Allahabad University: University of Allahabad has always occupied an esteemed place among the Universities of India for over a century. Established on 23rd September 1887, it is the fourth oldest University of India after Calcutta, Bombay and Madras University. The university has four faculties—Arts, Commerce, Law, and Science—four university institutes—Institute of Inter-Disciplinary Studies, Institute of Professional Studies, Institute of Gandhian Thoughts and Peace Studies, and National Centre of Experimental Mineralogy and Petrology—and five independent university centres: Centre of Behavioural and Cognitive Sciences, Centre for Women's Studies, M.N. Saha Centre of Space Studies, and Centre of The University of Allahabad aims to be a global intellectual centre. In the Banyan tree insignia, “Quot Rami Tot Arbores” means “as many branches, so many trees.” The phrase encourages us to pursue numerous academic subjects, symbolised by the branches, to create a wide wisdom forest. It moulds young minds to build future nations. With a commitment to quality education, research, and cultural richness, the university aims to become one of the world's top institutions, fostering innovation and producing leaders who shape the future, exploring the frontiers of knowledge and enriching people's lives. The University has boasted an impressive list of alumni, including former presidents, prime ministers, ministers, Supreme Court justices, and senior bureaucrats, all of whom have made significant contributions to India's defence sector.

After establishing an M.Ed. programme in 1942, the University of Allahabad Department of Education has implemented the UGC SAP DRS Phase-I for five years. The department collaborated with CIET, NCERT, New Delhi on the UGC e-PG Paathshala Project. National Journal “Research and Studies” ISSN 0084-621 is published annually by the department since 1950. Since 2013, department publishes UGC-SAP Annual News Letter. Educational Psychology, Technology, and Science Education labs are adequately equipped in the Department of Education.

The Delhi Teachers University: Delhi Teachers University has been established through the Delhi Teachers University Act, 2022 (Delhi Act 02 of 2022), on 26 January 2022. The Delhi Teachers University is dedicated to evolving efficiently in both Pre-service and In-service stages across the school levels and higher education, in areas of educational studies, leadership and policy. Delhi Teachers University (DTU) has been established as a Teaching

University with an imperative focus on promoting professional preparation of Pre-service and In-service Teachers, research in Education and Extension activities in the field of school and teacher education. Established with a vision to redefine the landscape of teacher education in India, DTU aims to nurture a new generation of educators who are not only proficient in their disciplines but also compassionate, innovative and equipped to meet the evolving needs of a dynamic educational landscape. DTU is committed to providing a transformative learning experience that combines academic rigor with practical relevance, fostering critical thinking, creativity, and lifelong learning among our students. Multidisciplinary approach of DTU towards education encompasses a wide range of disciplines, including Education, Psychology, Sociology, Leadership etc., allowing a scope of exploring diverse perspectives and multidisciplinary connections. Through innovative pedagogies, research-driven practices and meaningful partnerships, DTU strive to create an environment where students, faculty, staff and community members can thrive, learn and grow together. By embracing innovation, collaboration and inclusivity, we aim to make a meaningful difference in teacher education and society; locally, nationally and globally. DTU envisions providing a holistic experience to the students and shaping sensitive, responsible, culturally rooted and globally prepared professionals and educators for the education sector.
