The university's Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) is working on preparing the Self-Study Report (SSR). To do this, the NAAC Report Preparation Committee held an important meeting where they discussed every criterion carefully.

The members agreed not only to complete the required write-ups but also to make them as high-quality as possible. It has been decided to include research papers and book chapters to strengthen the report and highlight the university's academic excellence. With strong determination and a commitment to excellence, the team is ready to create an SSR that will reflect the university's dedication to quality education.

The meeting has been concluded with a Vote of Thanks to the Chair.
