Important Instructions

1. All applicants are advised to carefully read the Ph.D. Admission Brochure 2026–27 and ensure that they fulfill all the prescribed eligibility conditions. Mere submission of an application or participation in the admission process shall not confer any right to admission. Admission shall remain provisional until verification of eligibility and documents and approval by the Competent Authority.
2. Candidates will be allowed to appear for the Research Aptitude Test (RAT–Interview) only after successfully completing the document verification process, which is an essential prerequisite for appearing in the RAT (Interview).
3. Candidates must appear in person for the RAT (Interview). No other mode of appearance will be permitted.
4. Applicants who fail to produce valid original documents in the prescribed format, as specified in the Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) Admission Brochure 2026–27, on the date of the RAT (Interview) shall not be allowed to participate in the RAT (Interview) and shall not be considered for further admission procedures.
5. Candidates who did not submit the Registration Form for RAT (Interview) by the prescribed last date shall not be allowed to appear for the RAT (Interview).
6. All candidates mentioned in the above schedule must bring four copies of their research synopsis, along with all original documents, at the time of reporting for the RAT (Interview).
7. No request for a change in the date of the RAT (Interview) shall be entertained.
